

Social and Business Impact

Social Impact

- Helps farmers make informed agricultural decisions.
- Increases crop productivity.
- Reduces financial losses caused by poor crop selection.
- Promotes sustainable farming.
- Supports rural development.
- Improves food security.
- Encourages adoption of digital agriculture technologies.

Business Impact

- Supports agribusiness organizations with agricultural insights.
- Assists policymakers in agricultural planning.
- Enables precision farming practices.
- Optimizes fertilizer, water, and pesticide utilization.
- Reduces operational costs.
- Improves supply chain planning through better crop forecasting.
- Creates opportunities for future commercial smart farming solutions.